GPO is pleased to announce the release of The Value of the FDLP . This page offers a information on how to highlight the value of being a Federal depository library, including services GPO provides FDLP members, the expertise and services FDLP members provide one another as part of the larger network, and the local value individual libraries place on the FDLP within their institution.

The Web page provides information on how to submit success stories. We highly encourage you to submit all types of successes, large or small. Submissions may include any manner of information that conveys how your users, your institution, or your library finds Value in the FDLP. Send us your press releases, interesting activities, community feedback, video or news stories. Other members of the FDLP can benefit from how you are discovering and growing the Value of the FDLP in your community.
