OMB Director Visits GPO

Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Director Peter Orszag visited the U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) to inspect the production of President Barack Obama's Budget for Fiscal Year (FY) 2010. Public Printer Bob Tapella introduced Director Orszag to several of the GPO employees who have been working around the clock to print the President's Budget. GPO and OMB will distribute copies of the Budget in two phases. The first phase will be on May 7th. The second phase will be on May 11th.

"It was my pleasure and honor to give Director Orszag a firsthand look at the hard work our employees do every day in producing the documents of our democracy," said Public Printer Bob Tapella.
