New Procedures for Classifying Digital Reproductions of Monographs

With the increasing availability of digital reproductions of older U.S. Government publications, GPO has developed new procedures for assigning Superintendent of Documents (SuDoc) classification numbers and item numbers to these publications as they are being added to the Catalog of U.S. Government Publications (CGP). For more information about how these publications will be classed, please consult this article.