

Direct Mail Titles

Wednesday, 15 December 1999 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 April 2009

Direct mail is depository material mailed directly to the library from the printing contractor, i.e., not in regular or separate shipment boxes or listed on a shipping list. Any titles currently selected or received through Direct Mail are depository publications and must be managed appropriately according to FDLP policies.

The following microfiche titles are currently distributed as Direct Mail.
