Public Access to PACER to be Enhanced

The Judicial Conference, at it's March 16, 2010 meeting, approved measures that allow the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AOUSC) to explore how they can increase public access to PACER (Public Access to Electronic Court Records).

For more information, please see their news release.