Service partnerships assist GPO to provide enhanced services to Federal depository libraries. These partnerships can focus on repurposing GPO provided information or on providing other services to depository libraries and the public. These services may provide assistance to librarians with administering their depository collections.

- Browse Topics
- Enhanced Shipping List Service
- Government Information Online (GIO): Ask a Librarian
- List Federal Agency Internet Sites
- Regional Federal Depository Libraries