Is any specific software or hardware required to participate in the pilot project?

There is no special technology, expertise, or equipment needed for participation in this pilot. MARCIVE distributes records via a standard File Transfer Protocol (FTP) client. Participants will need to have staff who can work with MARC records and have ability to handle record loading into your library's ILS/OPAC.