

GPO has released the agency's FY 2008 annual report entitled, "GPO Sustainable Environmental Stewardship: Good Business. Good Government."

The report details another year of increased revenue for the agency, as GPO continues to thrive by achieving a fifth consecutive year of net income.

GPO's annual report further illustrates the sustainable environmental stewardship initiatives achieved and that are currently underway.

GPO has also released a video that accompanies the annual report that highlights accomplishments and initiatives for attaining sustainable environmental stewardship at one of the world's largest digital information facilities.
