

Person on the Street Transcripts

Video 3: comes to mind when you hear the word “library”?

Kelly: This is Kelly with the U.S. Government Printing Office. I'm out and about in Washington, DC trying to find out what people know about the Federal Depository Library Program. So, what pops into people's minds when they hear the word “library?”

<introduction music>

Kelly: What comes to mind when you hear the word “library?”

Interviewee 1: Books.

Interviewee 2: Books.

Interviewee 3: Books.

Interviewee 4: Studying.

Interviewee 5: Books.

Interviewee 6: Library? Books.

Interviewee 7: Books.

Interviewee 8: Books.

Interviewee 9: Um, books.

Interviewee 10: Books.

Interviewee 11: Library of...Library of Congress.

Interviewee 12: Library? You think of the Library of Congress, the largest library in the world.

Interviewee 13: The Library of Congress.

Interviewee 14: The Library of Congress.

Interviewee 15: <laughs> The Library of Congress – where we're going right now.

Interviewee 16: Reading.

Interviewee 17: Knowledge.

Kelly: To discover everything your library has to offer, visit www.gpoaccess.gov/libraries.html and visit your local Federal depository library. For the U.S. Government Printing Office, this is Kelly signing off.
