THE SELECT COMMITTEE
 ON THE MODERNIZATION
 OF CONGRESS

FINAL REPORT

CHAIR DEREK KILMER
 VICE CHAIR TOM GRAVES

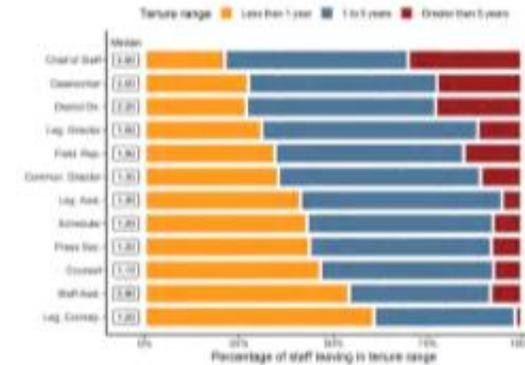

OCTOBER
2020

"The effects of such low wages are compounded given that D.C.-based congressional aides live in one of the most expensive metropolitan areas in the country and are increasingly likely to come to Congress owing large amounts in student loans. As a result, Congress has struggled to retain qualified and effective staff. Staffers regularly depart Congress after short tenures, trading their congressional experience and connections for higher salaries offered by special interest and lobbying organizations."

The American Political Science Association Task Force on Congressional Reform²⁰⁴

Figure 3.3 below depicts high levels of congressional staff turnover, by position. While some of this turnover reflects staffers leaving one Hill job for another, turnover at the higher levels is more often off the Hill, to higher paying jobs.

Gov Docs 101 Webinar Series Overview

Kathy Garmichael, Government Publishing Office, Federal Depository Support Services, Outreach Librarian, kgarmichael@gpo.gov

Gov Docs 101 is a new FDL Academy ongoing webinar series, introduced in early 2020. The series provides topics targeted to newer Federal Depository coordinators, but is open to anyone interested in the topic. Since its beginning in February the webinars have been well attended and have attracted attendees from a wide variety of institutions and libraries. The poster will review the series' first year, first year metrics, and provide information about plans for 2021.

Join the Cataloging Record Distribution Program

Kahny Bayer, Government Publishing Office, Federal Depository Support Services, Outreach Librarian, fdlpoutreach@gpo.gov

This poster describes the FDLP's Cataloging Record Distribution Program and invites additional depositories to join. The Cataloging Record Distribution Program (CRDP) provides a monthly set of GPO produced catalog records to participating Federal depository libraries at no cost to the libraries. Each participating library may acquire all newly created catalog records, or the new records plus changed records, with item numbers that match their item number selection profile.

“My civics club and I just wanted to reach out to tell you how helpful your Constitution Day page was to us! We've been doing our meetings remotely, I think we're finally getting the hang of it LOL. The kids have been working on research projects on government & politics since this is an election year – it's been quite a ride... But one of the girls in our group – Shayna - ended up on your page... She found some great resources because of it and she was excited to show me! Shayna thought we should tell you that we appreciate it =)”

CONSTITUTION DAY

Thursday, September 17

This day was originally designated by Congress as Citizenship Day in 1940 and then later in 1952 and recently in 2005, adding in the commemoration of the signing of the U.S. Constitution. See the HCC Library LibGuide: "Constitution Day & Voting Rights."

https://harford.libguides.com/government_information which includes links to interactive and digital copies of the U.S. Constitution, to Voter Registration in Harford County, to Maryland Census 2020, and to several exhibits and videos showcasing the U.S. Constitution, the Bill of Rights and subsequent amendments, and Voting Rights.

CONSTITUTION DAY MS TEAMS LIVE EVENT

Constitution Day is a celebration of the formation and signing of the U.S. Constitution by 39 of the 55 delegates to the Constitutional Convention on September 17, 1787. The date is also designated Citizenship Day to focus on the rights and responsibilities of citizens under the Constitution. Coordinated by the Behavioral and Social Sciences Division, Constitution Day at Harford strives to educate the campus community about the Constitution and citizenship, both historically and as they apply to today's challenges. Within the context of "Your Vote, Your Voice, Our Democracy," we will celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment. This year's Constitution Day will take place on September 17 during College Hour (12:30-1:30 p.m.) and you are invited to join the live event by clicking on this link - tinyurl.com/sept17athcc

NATIONAL VOTER REGISTRATION DAY

Tuesday, September 22

This is a nonpartisan civic holiday promoting awareness of voter registration opportunities all over the country. Exercise your Right to Vote! See Facebook.com/votinginformationcenter to add your location for voting
