

Curating Government Information to Facilitate Access to Justice (A2J)

Michael Samson WSU Arthur Neef Law Library ad4092@wayne.edu

What is "curation"?

- process of finding, distilling, adding value, preserving, and sharing the most relevant stories on a topic (gov info) for a specific audience (e.g. community users of FDL #0289A - Arthur Neef Law Library)
- a time-consuming activity that requires experience, subject-matter expertise, communication and technology skills

Step 1: Search setup

Search setup

- setting up multiple search bots and alerts for 'official' sites
- follow established 'curators' in the same subject area by subscribing to feeds, newsletters, custom search engines, catalog persistent searches

Tools

 web alert services (G-Alerts, G-Scholar), custom search engines, catalog persistent searches, e-newsletters

Government Documents Display Clearinghouse

".... The Government Documents Display Clearinghouse was established to assist Federal depository library staff in creating intriguing and eyecatching displays for promoting Government documents collections. This enables others to view displays on numerous topics, as well as the sources used to create them.

The Clearinghouse is seeking FDLP displays, and they welcome digital images and lists of sources. Send photos and bibliographies for your displays to the Clearinghouse."
