Salesforce Community Login

The askGPO webpage and community login will be used by Federal Depository Library Program staff to submit inquiries, check the status of inquiries, submit webforms and request additional login credentials for team members.

The designated depository coordinator will also be able to edit the Federal Depository Library Directory (FDLD) entry for their library.

- Searching the FDLD will still be done through https://catalog.gpo.gov/fdlpdir/FDLPdir.jsp

The benefit of authenticating with a login is that you will be able to view all your past submitted inquiries, and information on many forms will be populated automatically.

Access the askGPO Community webpage at https://ask.gpo.gov. If necessary, click the login button from the right hand corner:

Alternatively, use this link to enter your credentials directly. Enter your user name and password and click on “Log into askGPO”: https://usgpo.force.com/askGPO/s/login/
Community Navigation

Once logged into the community as an authenticated user, the home page will be displayed as below. Some of the features of the webpage include:

- Quick links on the top panel
- A menu bar
- Six tiles for the user to submit inquiries based on their need or affiliation
- Knowledge base articles covering frequently asked questions

Enter keywords in the search box to search across the entire site’s content. Results will include knowledge base articles (frequently asked questions) and inquiries you have submitted.
The FAQ tab lists all the published knowledge articles. Look here to see if an answer to your question has already been published before submitting an inquiry.

The most frequently viewed knowledge base articles appear in the “Trending Articles” list. At the bottom of the page are GPO’s social media footer links.
Submit and Review an Inquiry (as an authenticated user)

To submit an inquiry, you can click on “Submit an inquiry” from the menu bar (recommended), or click on a tile on the home page (use the tile that corresponds to the type of user you are).
You will see an inquiry submission page, with some of your own information pre-populated in the form:

You have the option to upload files if needed.

You have the option to enter a personal note (35 character limit). Use the personal note to enter keywords that will help you sort or search for your inquiries.

When your form is complete, click the “I am not a robot” box, then click “Submit”
You will receive a confirmation message and a reference number. For authenticated users, the reference number is a clickable link that will take you to an inquiry record for that question.

On the inquiry record, user can review the “Related files” section to access and download any attachments.
After submitting a question, you will receive a confirmation message from GPO, along with the inquiry details:

Thank you for contacting the U.S. Government Publishing Office.
Your question has been received, and you should receive a response from us within two business days.

Submit an Unreported Publication Inquiry

The unreported publication leads to a slightly different type of input form. You will choose a radio button to indicate whether you are reporting only one publication or multiple publications. The form will look different depending on which option you choose. If you are submitting multiple publications, you will need to upload a CSV spreadsheet with publication information.

Federal Depository Library Directory

To view and search the entire Federal Depository Library Directory, users will still use this site: https://catalog.gpo.gov/fdlpdir/FDLPdir.jsp. As of August 10, 2020, depository library coordinators and staff should make all changes to the Federal Depository Library Directory information for their library through the askGPO community site.

- Click on the “My FDL” link on the menu bar to view the Directory information about your library.

- If the FDL user is the Depository coordinator, he/she will have the ability to edit some fields (those with a pencil icon visible).

Request a login to askGPO Community Portal for additional staff

You do not need a login to use the askGPO site to submit a question for GPO staff. The benefit of having a login is a streamlined submission process, with your contact information auto-populated, and the ability to maintain a record of your submissions. If you work at a Federal Depository Library, you can submit a request for a login on behalf of another person who works at the same library.

To submit a login request, click on “Request Login” on the menu bar, fill out the form, and submit the request. Enter the additional first/last name and email of the person you want to request an account for, not your own.

Once the requester has submitted the login request, they will receive an email confirmation.

Thank you for contacting the U.S. Government Publishing Office.

Your login request has been received. The additional user will receive an email when the login is activated along with instructions on creating a password for the additional user account.
