Who We Are

The Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) is the central facility for the collection and dissemination of scientific and technical information for the Department of Defense (DoD). As an element of the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA), DTIC serves as a vital link in the transfer of information among DoD personnel, DoD contractors and potential contractors and other U.S. Government agency personnel and their contractors.

Why We Do What We Do

- Provide direct information support to the warfighter.
- Leverage the multi billion dollar investment in DoD scientific and technical research so that it can be used by citizens at large.
- Prevent unnecessary or redundant research from being performed at taxpayer expense.

How We Do What We Do

- DoD-funded researchers are required to search DTIC's collections

Who We Are

The Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) is THE premier provider of DoD technical information. DTIC serves as a vital link in the transfer of information among DoD personnel, DoD contractors and potential contractors and other U.S. Government agency personnel and their contractors. DTIC is a DoD Field Activity under the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, reporting to the Director, Defense Research & Engineering \(DDR&E\).

Why We Do What We Do

- Provide direct information support to the warfighter.
- Leverage the multi billion dollar investment in DoD scientific and technical research.
- Prevent unnecessary or redundant research from being performed at taxpayer expense.

How We Do What We Do

- DoD-funded researchers are required to search DTIC's collections of technical reports and summaries of ongoing research to ensure that unnecessary research is not undertaken.
- DTIC has leading edge expertise in hosting Web sites, and has developed over 100 Web sites for other Defense programs.
- DTIC manages Information Analysis Centers which help customers locate, analyze and use scientific and technical information in a specialized subject area.

The main content area features a large image of a speaker at a podium. Below the image is a news article titled "PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS - President George W. Bush at the U.S. Air Force Memorial dedication ceremony, Oct. 14, 2006." The article text includes: "WASHINGTON, Oct. 14, 2006 - President George W. Bush dedicated the U.S. Air Force Memorial here today in a ceremony attended by military leaders of the past and present, military representatives and thousands of other guests." Below the article is a "New Port Security Law" article dated Oct. 13, 2006, which states: "WASHINGTON, Oct. 13, 2006 - The federal government is to protect the U.S. government has taken many steps since the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001, here today. Story" and "President's Remarks on Sign".

On the right side, there is a "AIR FORCE MEMORIAL DEDICATION WEEKEND OCT. 14-15" banner with a "VIDEO ON DEMAND - OCT. 14" link. Below this is a "NEW" section with a "Marine Corps" link and a small image of a ship.

A large yellow arrow points from the banner area towards the main content area.

The Air University Library's Index to Military Periodicals (AULIMP)

The Air University Library's Index to Military Periodicals is a subject index to significant articles, news items, and editorials from English language military and aeronautical periodicals. The Index contains citations since 1988 and is updated continuously. A comprehensive list of all journals covered by AULIMP since 1949 is available as the Historical Index of AULIMP titles.

The Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) hosts this web-based version of the AULIMP via its Scientific and Technical Information Network \(STINET\) web services. There are numerous alternatives for achieving comprehensive and accurate searches including:

- Search the entire Index
- Begin with a listing of articles by subject headings.
- Begin with a listing of articles by periodicals.
- Begin with a listing of articles by authors.

Several of the AULIMP journals have Internet web sites (DTIC provides individual journal home pages to see exactly what each publication makes available since many do not). For your convenience, DTIC has included the URL addresses of many of these sites so they will appear in your search results.

Library is a specialized military library, and multinational operations, military history warfare, and operations other than war.

Library staff members regularly scan the weekly news magazines, monthly and quarterly journals such as Military Review, Armed Forces Journal, and quarterly publications, including NATO's Nations and Partners for Peace, RUSI Journal, and the Naval War College Review. Miscellaneous reports from RAND and the General Accounting Office are also indexed in SCAMPI. The resulting database serves as a guide to articles on military and naval art and science, operational warfare, joint planning, national and international politics, and other areas researched by JFSC

DTIC® Guidelines for Determining Copy Rights

[\[Back to Selection Criteria\]](#) [\[Submitting to DTIC\]](#)

Purpose

Because R&D managers and STI information center staff are often uncertain about what to do with documents that are copyrighted, these guidelines have been written to help managers and staff in determining Government rights in copyrighted works. For professional legal advice: Because the copyright law is complex and situation-based, consult your agency legal questions.

1) Is this a document authored by Government employees?

If yes, it is NOT COPYRIGHTED and the Government may reproduce and distribute the work.

2) Is this document a joint work by Government and non-Government authors?

If yes, the Government may reproduce and distribute works made jointly by non-Government parties and Government employees working within the scope of their Government jobs.

For copyright questions about government documents, refer to DTIC Copyright Guidelines.

Ask a Librarian

- QuestionPoint, the Cooperative Virtual Reference service, was developed by OCLC and the U.S. Library of Congress and is supported by institutions worldwide.
- This digital, collaborative reference service is available 24/7 (24 hours per day, 7 days per week) and allows libraries and information centers to expand reference services with shared resources and subject specialists around the world.
- DTIC is a participating member of the following QuestionPoint cooperatives: 1) Global Reference Network, a worldwide group of libraries and institutions committed to digital reference, and 2) DDLRS - Defense Digital Library Research Service, a 24/7 electronic reference for Department of Defense libraries.
- Questions submitted by patrons via this Web-based digital reference service may be referred to the Global Network or to the consortium of DoD libraries for a response.
- DTIC users with specific queries for DTIC Reference Services should contact ref@dtic.mil or call 703-767-8274 or 1-800-225-3842

Who We Are

The Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC®) is THE premier provider of DoD technical information. DTIC serves as a vital link in the transfer of information among DoD personnel, DoD contractors and potential contractors and other U.S. Government agency personnel and their contractors. DTIC is a DoD Field Activity under the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, reporting to the Director, Defense Research & Engineering \(DDR&E\).

Why We Do What We Do

- Provide direct information support to the warfighter.
- Leverage the multi billion dollar investment in DoD scientific and technical research.
- Prevent unnecessary or redundant research from being performed at taxpayer expense.

How We Do What We Do

- DoD-funded researchers are required to search DTIC's collections of technical reports and summaries of ongoing research to ensure that unnecessary research is not undertaken.
- DTIC has leading edge expertise in hosting Web sites, and has developed over 100 Web sites for other Defense programs.

Free Training for DTIC Registered Users

Searching DTIC Databases using Private STINET

▪ This three-day, hands-on class covers the content and methods for searching and retrieving scientific and technical information using Private STINET. Private STINET is DTIC's web based access to a variety of information resources, including unclassified citations to classified documents. It is a newly merged system that combines the features and collections of Secure STINET and the search capabilities of Web Enabled DROLS (WED). The Technical Reports Bibliographic Database, Research Summaries Database and Independent Research & Development Database are discussed at length. The focus of this course is to explore the information sources available through Private STINET; to develop effective searching strategies to retrieve information from DTIC's databases; to provide practical search tips to effectively use the systems' unique search features; and provide instruction for ordering documents and electronic bibliographies.

Training Schedule

▪ A comprehensive listing of the dates and times DTIC training is offered.

Marking Technical

▪ This one-day class provides the rationale and mechanics for marking distribution statements, (FOUO) marking, and the notice to DOD STINFO. The course includes a lecture, exercises, and STIP.

Who We Are

The Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) is the central facility for the collection and dissemination of scientific and technical information for the Department of Defense (DoD). As an element of the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA), DTIC serves as a vital link in the transfer of information among DoD personnel, DoD contractors and potential contractors and other U.S. Government agency personnel and their contractors.

Why We Do What We Do

- Provide direct information support to the warfighter.
- Leverage the multi billion dollar investment in DoD scientific and technical research so that it can be used by citizens at large.
- Prevent unnecessary or redundant research from being performed at taxpayer expense.

How We Do What We Do

- DoD-funded researchers are required to search DTIC's collections
