U.S. Congressional Serial Set

1817-Date

The United States Congressional Serial Set, commonly referred to as the Serial Set, is considered an essential publication for unveiling American history. Spanning more than two centuries with more than 17,000 bound volumes, the records in this series include House and Senate Documents, House and Senate Reports, and much more. The reports are usually from congressional committees dealing with proposed legislation and issues under investigation. The documents include all other papers ordered printed by the House or Senate. Documents cover a wide variety of topics, including reports of executive departments and independent organizations, reports of special investigations made for Congress, and annual reports of non-governmental organizations. During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, executive-branch materials were also published in the Serial Set.

American State Papers

1789-1838

United States Congressional Documents from the period 1789 to 1817 are published under American State Papers, which consists of 38 volumes. The two series overlap, as American State Papers covers through 1838. Full coverage of the American State Papers is available within this collection inside HeinOnline.

Researching in the Serial Set

The default landing page of the Serial Set directs users to the full list of Congress numbers available within the collection. Citation and volume locator tools are provided in both drop-down and free-field lookup form.

Located on separate tabs users will also notice Congressional Documents and Congressional Reports from the 115th-117th Congresses which are available in HeinOnline, but have not yet been assigned a Serial Set citation. The American State Papers, which encompass the 1st through 25th Congress are also available.

Volumes within a Congress

Once a Congress number has been selected, users are taken to the complete list of volumes within the selected Congress.

While searching or browsing the Serial Set in HeinOnline, colored icons appear next to various records. These icons indicate whether full-text coverage or indexing only is currently available for the material. Selecting a volume number within a Congress brings users to a complete list of titles within the volume. Availability is indicated by "H" icons.

HELP COMPLETE THE PROJECT

Lend Hein a Hand

If your library holds all or part of the Serial Set, and you are willing to assist us in completing this project, please contact Hein's Executive Vice President, Shannon Hein, at shein@wshein.com or 716-882-2600.

Future Releases

The number of full-text volumes of the Serial Set in HeinOnline will continue to grow monthly by nearly 350,000 pages, or four million pages each year. Phase one of this project will not include oversized foldouts or maps. We plan to include this content in future releases. Users will be notified on the status of the project via email, the monthly HeinOnline Newsletter, and the HeinOnline blog.
