

DLC Wrap Up & Closing – Chat log

Chat

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Just saw Jenny's suggestion of an update class for prior cohorts and we need that so much. Advanced Depository Coordination: for those who are tearing their hair out. I'm flexible on the subtitle.

Jennifer Morgan -> All Participants: I like that idea, Charlie and Jenny.

Amy Laub-Carroll -> All Participants: @Jenny and Charlie, that is a great idea!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Charlie - no, we need to keep that title

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: I bounce between that phase and: over/undercaffeinated but never just caffeinated

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: +1 Charlie!

Elissa Lawrence -> All Participants: Pleeeeease!! I need human contact!!

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: I'm biased because I can grab a train from Baltimore to DC.

Rick Mikulski -> All Participants: +1 Elissa

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: You need an option for - I would like to but probably won't be able to.

Tami Morse -> All Participants: There really should be a "Maybe" choice!

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: That would be easier said than done. Funding to send some librarians might not be there for some libraries such as mine. A hybrid might work

Scott Briggs -> All Participants: No because as staff I wouldn't be able to afford to go.

Caroline Gilson -> All Participants: maybe??

Tami Morse -> All Participants: If it's at this time of year, then no because of Federal fiscal year rollover

Elizabeth Williams -> All Participants: Would like to attend, but unlikely my library would pay for the travel.

Aimee Quinn -> All Participants: @Scott, if we could find a way for some type of scholarship or funding, would you be able to attend?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I miss the Spring conference in other parts of the country. It was way less expensive for me to fly across country to Reno, stay a few extra days (to reduce airfare), rent a car - than it was to drive to DC

Becki White -> All Participants: @Aimee, there would need to be A LOT of scholarships. My library can't afford to send anyone that far either.

Sarah Dobransky -> All Participants: Cookie recipes!

Elizabeth McDonald -> All Participants: hope conference is hybrid

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: All the great gems of documents in sessions

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Many other national level conferences have returned to in-person, seems reasonable to ask GPO to follow suit; realizing that some travel budgets have not been reinstated

Laura Gricius-West -> All Participants: Really enjoyed the Found! Government Images session

Laura Gricius-West -> All Participants: listening to Hannah's voice

J. Wendel Cox -> All Participants: First-time attendee: what a community!

David Isaak -> All Participants: <http://www.listdiff.com/> seems like a great tool that I will be using a lot.

Jacqui Celecia -> All Participants: Agreed with the hybrid conference.

Tami Morse -> All Participants: Tech Tips and Tricks was just great! I missed the cookie recipes...

Gwen Sinclair -> All Participants: Great sessions about Native Americans and indigenous people.

Vicki Tate -> All Participants: Just because there may be an in-person conference it does not mean that there won't be a virtual component for those that can't attend.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I have many titles to add to GODORT's Weird & Wonderful documents

John Olson -> All Participants: Always good ideas and comments in the chat.

Mary Russell -> All Participants: GAO program was so helpful!

Kristina Bobe -> All Participants: Sessions on indigenous persons

Mark Hamilton -> All Participants: Tips, Tricks & Tech was great!

Scott Briggs -> All Participants: @Aimee hybrid would be best as I am the only full time Gov Doc person and I have to train student workers.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Much more diverse topics

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: I liked that a few presentations highlighted displaying documents in the historical sense like a special collections department would.

Elizabeth McDonald -> All Participants: Great sessions

Caroline Gilson -> All Participants: I want to be Claudene Sproles at Univ of Louisville when I grow up. Her presentation was spot-on, best of the conference.

Deisy Vaske -> All Participants: I enjoyed the Found! Government Images session

Ester McShepard -> All Participants: I enjoyed the 'Yes to the FDLP' session

Jessica Torgerson Lundin -> All Participants: the indigenous people sessions

Marna Morland -> All Participants: The "Tech" session this morning was the BEST I've ever attended about helpful tech tools!

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Hybrid conference is always an option; GPO FDLP was doing this before hand as well, seems like a great option! :)

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: The presentations on Indigeneous peoples were very informative.

Leslie Cunningham -> All Participants: Boarding Schools sessions

Scott Briggs -> All Participants: Loved the images session and both of today's Indigenous sessions.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: +1 Scott - yes, hybrid would need to be option. Like DLC did before pandemic

Becki White -> All Participants: Tips Tricks and Tech was an excellent session, even though I missed the beginning because I'm working at the Ref Desk during the sessions.

Leslie Cunningham -> All Participants: The Tips and Tricks were awesome

Ellen Wrede -> All Participants: Helen Keremedjiev has a future in public radio- the best and most soothing MC!

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: The posters were very informative as well; we're switching to ALMA in a couple of years so this will be quite helpful!

Sheila Dorsey -> All Participants: Great hearing about all the projects -loved Unveiling a Hidden Collection

Claudene Sproles -> All Participants: Wow Caroline! Thanks!!!

Jose Torres -> All Participants: U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Information Resources was great.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I missed Tips, Tricks and Techs because shorter schedule had different room

Emily Sweeton -> All Participants: Hearing about other library's inventory processes as well as ideas for Gov Doc displays.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: +1 Ellen

Valerie Glenn -> All Participants: hearing about the FDLP Data Manager (new DDM3) beta testing coming soon!

Jennifer Morgan -> All Participants: +1 John Olson - it's so important to hear and receive feedback from the FDL community. This feedback is saved in the chat where we can all review it.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: WHOA! @Valerie I missed that

Susanne Caro -> All Participants: I like that these are recorded- there were times I really wanted to go to two sessions at the same time

Mary Sauers -> All Participants: U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Information Resources and Found! Government Images were awesome!

Bernadette Johnson -> All Participants: I was delighted to learn about the Context Menu Search extension in the DLC Snacks with Council Tips, Tricks, and Tech session.

Aimee Quinn -> All Participants: +1 Susanne1

Jackie McFadden -> All Participants: I enjoyed What Does the Green Dot Mean? There were several historical items mentioned that I hadn't thought about. And Gwen is always awesome!

Susanne Caro -> All Participants: I agree that Helen Keremedjiev has a great voice

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: yes Susanne - need the recordings. Now I can recommend specific sessions to coworkers

Aimee Quinn -> All Participants: Gwen and Claudine are always awesome.

Kristina Claunch -> All Participants: I have learned so much about tech, indigenous people, weeding and working with gov docs, images, too much to process! Loved it all!

Jacqui Celecia -> All Participants: Thank you for the archived recordings & including the chat. I will definitely reviewing and sharing these great presentations

Laura Gricius-West -> All Participants: Yes, I meant Helen's voice, not Hannah's. LOL. I want that voice for my GPS

Sarah Dobransky -> All Participants: +1 Susanne! I think an audiobook voiceover contract should be in her future!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I didn't understand preconference - so I missed it

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Bingo!

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: Loved Unveiling a hidden collection!

Helen Keremedjiev -> All Participants: Thank you for your kind words!

Mary Russell -> All Participants: The work that ACPL is doing is super impressive and it was great to hear about the nuts and bolts of their project.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: People new to gov't info - welcome! Reach out for help

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: After the weeding presentation I did not feel so bad from where I am in my weeding projects.

Emily Sweeton -> All Participants: +1 Brylynn

Mark Hamilton -> All Participants: If hybrid would be great to have a stream for both rooms

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Good to hear! Especially for those of us who have state level library conferences the exact same week! But if not, I'll be in Arlington!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: DLC hybrid helped me adjust to pandemic lock down - it wasn't totally new to me

Kelly Smith -> All Participants: As a native Hoosier now in CA, I was really happy to see Indiana State Library named library of the year

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: @Mark, yes, definitely!

Jen Kirk -> All Participants: Congrats again to Indiana State Library!

Sheila Dorsey -> All Participants: Well deserved, Indiana!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: But no swag

Deisy Vaske -> All Participants: Yes, congratulations to Indiana!!!

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: As a Hoosier I may be biased but Indiana is the best!

Jen Kirk -> All Participants: From the preconference, more FDLP marketing materials coming soon!

Sarah Erikson -> All Participants: I miss the swag

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: That was my dream pitch.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: So yes, let's spread that rumor.

Sarah Erikson -> All Participants: but I love the conference

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: YES!

KATHY CARMICHAEL -> All Participants: Another Happy Hoosier for Indiana SL

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: There was swag at one point?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Gov't Info swag is my favorite. I still have a GPO tote from 2003 - it won't last too long

Kelly Seifert -> All Participants: lots of swag :)

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: My predecessor left swag. It's mine now.

Susanne Caro -> All Participants: Brylynn- the bags are the best!

Jackie McFadden -> All Participants: The totes were the best!

Kristina Claunch -> All Participants: Yes to swag!

Sarah Dobransky -> All Participants: The insulated bag was the best!

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: Should just have a swag store on FDLP website

Rick Mikulski -> All Participants: Yes! Swag!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Yes - crafty librarians make swag to share rob mead -> All Participants: Yes to a swag store!

Jen Kirk -> All Participants: next conference craft! :)

Sarah Erikson -> All Participants: I used the insulated bag last week

Jennifer Morgan -> All Participants: Can we have round pencils that fit into pencil sharpeners? Please? :-)

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: I'm going to tell my secret, but I have an FDLP search going at all times on eBay. It never pops.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: +1 Jennifer

Jesse Griffin -> All Participants: I still have about 5 carpenter pencils! And a carpenter pencil sharpener.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Susanne Caro's GODORT 50th decorations made GREAT swag at ALA

Rick Mikulski -> All Participants: I like when the swag changes ever so slightly. In previous years, the pencil used to be blue -- now they're green!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: But I need withdrawn microfiche to recreate her jewelry

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Jenny, I can hook you up.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I'm at Regional - we don't withdraw

Susanne Caro -> All Participants: Next time we meet in person I'll bring some Vicki Tate -> All Participants: I usually give my swag to my staff since they cannot attend the conference in person.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Thanks Charlie - CT State Library

Deisy Vaske -> All Participants: I put the carpenter's pencils for our display anniversary and they disappeared in 1/2 day. I could not believe it

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Just curious, in a "normal" year, about how many in person attendees would there be?

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Kris - I think we stil have a few carpenter pencils in the vault

Elisabeth Garner -> All Participants: Ok, thanks for that information! :)

Barb Nickolas -> All Participants: I always look forward to this virtual conference, glad for afternoon sessions. Such great presentations and thankful for recorded sessions to go back and listen later. and that virtual would be an option when this goes back to in person.

Kristina Claunch -> All Participants: In previous conferences, were they always at the same location or different places?

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: I hoard my carpenter pencils

Vicki Tate -> All Participants: I remember one year it was close to 400 pre-vitual.

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: I found a ton of withdrawn promo bookmarks. I need to craft w/them.

Amy Laub-Carroll -> All Participants: I'd like if coordinators could get FDLP logo hoodies

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Thank you - I missed LSCM update, but loved the community sessions

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Yes, logo hoodies.

Sarah Erikson -> All Participants: Thanks to the working groups and subcommittee for lots of great work and all the presenters

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: And sweatpants.

Amanda Ros -> All Participants: maybe swag...carpenter pencil sharpener

Brylynn Ellis -> All Participants: Yes Charlie! Swsweatpants

Mark Hamilton -> All Participants: +1 @Charlie on the logo hoodies

Rick Mikulski -> All Participants: Confession: I made my OWN fdlp hoody...

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Amy - what about past coordinators? I'm not coordinator at Regional but I should get a hoodie - been at FDLP libraries my entire career going back to 1986

Laura Gricius-West -> All Participants: for the BINGO, can you use FB to post? I can't use Twitter

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Rick, pics or it didn't happen.

rob mead -> All Participants: More about how the doc community can support HBCUs

Donald Sensabaugh -> All Participants: For those who have BINGO, please post your completed bingo card (include #FDLConference, and tag @USGPO) in Twitter or email kseifert@gpo.gov

Charlie (she-her) Amiot -> All Participants: Basically, we need the GPO store to add swag so we can buy it.

Amy Laub-Carroll -> All Participants: +1 Rick on the photos

Jennifer Castle -> All Participants: +1 Rob
